

The journal RECIMA21 is a multidisciplinary scientific publication, with quarterly publication and continuous flow, whose objective is the social, political and economic development of society, through the scientific and technological knowledge of publications that occurred in different areas.

A- THEMATIC

Educational Sciences

Papers related to teaching and learning are accepted.

Agrarian and Biological Sciences

Works related to the various areas of Agrarian and Biological Sciences are accepted.

Health Sciences

Works related to the various health sciences are accepted.

Exact and Earth Sciences

Works related to the various areas of Exact and Earth Sciences are accepted.

Humanities and Social Sciences

Works related to the various areas of human and social sciences are accepted.

Engineering

Works related to the various Engineering are accepted.

B- OF THE PRODUCTIONS

Articles

Review Articles. Review Articles of the various areas of knowledge are accepted.

Reviews

Book reviews from various areas of knowledge are accepted.

TCCs

Course/report/research completion work

Interviews in general

C- STANDARDS FOR PUBLICATION

The papers received will be submitted to the Editorial Committee and sent to the evaluators. They will be published after due approval.

Rules for the writing of texts:

1. Articles must be unpublished and not published in print or electronic form. Proof of originality is the responsibility of the author(s);
2. Articles published in Portuguese, English, French or Spanish will be accepted. Only accepted papers with writing and or bibliographic, because the version will be defined;
3. For the writing and presentation of the text it is necessary to adapt it to the standards of the American Psychological Association (APA) or the ABNT or VANCOUVER (in the case of the health area);
4. The classification of the Article by section, at the time of submission, may include the following dimensions: (may have more than one concomitant): Model / Unpublished Theory; Field Research / Empirical / Laboratory; Practical Applications; Case study and teaching; Descriptive and Critical Analysis; Bibliographic / Documentary Research.
5. On the first page of the article should contain the title of the work in Portuguese (centered and bold, capital letter), then the title in English and / or Spanish, when there is, in bold and italics, followed by THE ABSTRACT (line spacing 1 , 0), with a maximum of 250 words, KEYWORDS (at least three, recommended at most six) and SUMMARY, KEYWORDS, which should be removed and closed by point and then the introduction. The few should be bold and capitalized, left-aligned;
6. Articles shall not contain the identification of the author(s). The identification of the authorship of the work should be removed from the article, thus ensuring the criterion of confidentiality of the journal, if submitted for peer review, facilitating the review by the Blind Review system that omits to make reviewer the authorship of the work, during the review process;

7. Authors need to clearly present ideas, including the use of references and references. The papers should follow the format of the journal and, in general, are the following parts: (i) introduction, which means the important of the research (what the theme of the article, problematization, and what its purpose) and deals with its individuality ; (ii) theoretical framework; (iii) research methodology or methods and techniques; (iv) results and discussion; (v) Generation and recommendations; and (vi) revised bibliographic references;

8. Job Format: Office 97 word or later, Page configuration: Paper size: A4 (29.7cm x 21 cm), Top margin: 3.0 cm, Bottom margin: 2.0 cm, Left margin: 3, 0 cm, Right margin: 2.0 cm;

9. The text configuration should follow the pattern: Arial Source, body 10 (for the entire manuscript); Spacing between characters, words and lines: simple, for THE SUMMARY, SUMMARY and / or SUMMARY when there is and from the introduction spacing 1.5; Number of suggested pages: minimum of 13 (thirteen), maximum of 30 (thirty), including references, references (bibliography) and text footnotes. The article may display more or less pages, depending on your contribution. The number of authors per suggested article is 5 (five), but may present with more authors, depending on the research in question.

10. The article may not be submitted to simultaneous evaluation in another journal;

11. The Editor may or may not accept the article submitted for publication, in accordance with editorial policy;

12. The Editor may or may not accept an article after it has been evaluated by the double-blind system, which guarantees anonymity and confidentiality of both the author (or authors) and the reviewers;

13. The Editor may suggest changes to the article both with regard to the content of the matter and in relation to the adequacy of the text to the drafting and presentation standards (APA); or ABNT; or VANCOUVER (for the case of healthcare)

14. The article approved for publication will be submitted to the final edition and the orthographic and grammatical review;

15. In the OJS system, adopted by RECIMA21, the author(s) will have (m) the submission of the article refused by the system if it does not accept (in) as exclusive, originality and copyright clauses;

RECIMA21 - REVISTA CIENTÍFICA MULTIDISCIPLINAR
ISSN 2675-6218

16. The editor and / or any individual or institution linked to its collegiate bodies is not responsible for the opinions, ideas, concepts and positions expressed in the texts, because they are the sole responsibility of their author (or authors);

17. Comments are made in standardized evaluation forms, having space for personalized comments, which are forwarded to the author (s) in case of conditional acceptance, corrections or refusal;

18. Abstracts must be in two languages, preferably in Spanish and English;

19. It is necessary for the authors to inform ORCID in their submission database.